Monthly Index
of Russian Accessions

Volume 15, No. 10 January 1963

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
WASHINGTON : 1963

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The MONTHLY INDEX OF RUSSIAN ACCESSIONS* is a record of the publications in the Russian language issued in and outside the Soviet Union that are currently received by the Library of Congress and a group of cooperating libraries. Whenever possible, publications printed in other languages spoken in the Soviet Union are also included.

The MONTHLY INDEX consists of three parts. Part A lists monographic literature, but no accessions published earlier than 1945 are included. To facilitate the use of this INDEX by readers who are not thoroughly familiar with the Russian language, the title in the original language in Part A is preceded by its English translation in brackets.

Part B lists Russian periodicals received, but excludes accessions printed earlier than 1947. Certain Soviet periodicals are being translated into English from cover to cover and published regularly in translation in the United States and other English-speaking countries. A list of such translated periodicals, their publishers, subscription prices, etc., is given at the end of each issue of the Monthly Index. In Part B such periodicals are indicated by an asterisk before the periodical title.

Part C provides subject analysis of the monographic titles listed in Part A and of the articles appearing in the periodicals enumerated in the List of Periodicals Indexed and Abbreviations Used at the beginning of Part C. The number and letter in parentheses following each abbreviation indicate the class and subclass in which the periodical appears in Part B. For the convenience of readers desiring to examine only monographs or periodical articles, the monographs are printed in slightly heavier type than the periodical articles. The titles of monographs are given both in the original language and in English translation, whereas titles of periodical articles are given in English translation only.

Sample title: Electric action of the brain in glaucoma. L.S.Levina, G.M.Neishtadt. Vest.oft. 30 no.5 : 8–12 S–O '51.

Explanation: An article with title given above in English translation, written by L. S. Levina and G. M. Neishtadt, will be found in the September–October 1951 issue of Vestnik oftalmologii, vol. 30, no. 5, pages 8–12.

A cumulative list of periodicals included in the current volume appears in number 12 of that volume. This list is arranged by subject; the symbols of American libraries other than the Library of Congress, known to have files of such periodicals, follow each title.

Except in Part C, the material is divided into 17 subject classes and is arranged alphabetically within each class. In addition, for the convenience of the reader, the serials listed in Part B are divided within each subject class into several subclasses. All entries are transliterated according to the usual Library of Congress system except that ligatures are omitted. Unless otherwise indicated, all listed items are represented in the collections of the Library of Congress. Symbols representing other libraries indicate when items are available in those libraries. Curves ( ) around a symbol indicate that at the time of receipt the material was available in another library but not in the Library of Congress.

Cumulative author, subject, and periodical location indexes to the first four volumes of the MONTHLY INDEX are available as separate publications. Beginning with Volume 5, an author
-raphs, and a periodical location index for the entire volume are furnished as st two issues of the following volume.

ofilm or photostat copies of the listed items that are in the collections of the Machine for cotton processing directly from the bale. P. I. Artamov, V. G. Shchipitsyna, F. D. Kachaev. Nauch.-issl. trudy IvNITI 25 3-14 '61

COTTON MANUFACTURE

Preparation of mixed twisted cotton yarn for weaving without sizing. V. M. Tiugin. Izv. vys. ucheb. zav., tekh. tekst. prom. no. 4 69-72 '62

COTTON MANUFACTURE—COSTS

Technological bases for determining yarn production costs in cotton spinning. L. I. Zamalhovskii. Izv. vys. ucheb. zav., tekh. tekst. prom. no. 4 3-11 '62

COTTON WILT

Transformation of phenols in wilt-infected cotton plants [with summary in English]. G. IA. Gubanov. Fiziol. rast. 9 no. 5 614-619 '62

COURTS

More attention to the office work of Soviet courts. A. Solov'ev. Sov. iust. no. 20 11-12 O '62.

COVETOUSNESS see Avarice

COWS—DISEASES AND PESTS

Prevention of functional disorders of some of the physiological systems in cows with a high milk yield. G. A. Ovchedkov. Trudy NIVI 1 219-225 '60

COWS—FEEDING AND FEEDS

Effect of phosphorous supplements on milk productivity in cows. P. M. Kondratenko. Visnyk sil'hosp. nauky 5 no. 9 71-76 S '62.

COXSACKIE VIRUS

Coxsackie and ECHO virus infections in children. Sov. med. 26 no. 8, 3-8 Ag '62.

CRACKING PROCESS

Preparation of higher normal α-olefins by the high-speed cracking of paraffin petroleum products. K. P. Lavrovskii and others. Neftekhimiia 2 no. 4 487-494 Jl-Ag '62

CRANE FLIES see subdivision under Amur Valley, Zeya Valley

CRANES, DERRICKS, ETC.
